State of New Hampshire.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

An act to constitute the town of Hancoville from a part of the territory of the towns of Dublin and Nelson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened.

Section 1.

That all that part of Dublin and all that part of Nelson lying within the following lines and boundaries to wit:— beginning at a stake marked "D. W." standing in the line of Marlborough and Dublin at the southwest corner of lot No 22 in the eighth range of lots in said Dublin thence north the length of three lots in the lines of Marlborough and Roxbury to the northwest corner of Dublin, at a stake marked "D. R." thence south seventy nine degrees and forty five minutes east, seven rods to the southwest corner of the town of Nelson, at a stake marked "D. N. 1864." thence north eleven degrees east, the length of one lot to a stake marked "N. R. 1864", thence north seventy eight degrees west the width of one lot to a stake marked "N. R. 1864" thence north twelve degrees east the length of one lot to a stake marked "N. R. 1864" thence south seventy nine degrees forty five minutes east to a stake standing on the easterly shore of Breeds pond, so called, thence northerly on the easterly shore of said pond the length of one lot to a stake and stones, thence south, seventy nine degrees forty five minutes east on the northerly line of lots in the third range in said town of Nelson from the North line of Dublin to a stake and stones standing in the westerly line of the town of Hancock marked "N. H."; thence south twelve degrees thirty minutes west to the southwest corner of Hancock and the southeast corner of Nelson, to a stone standing in the wall, thence south seventy nine degrees east in the line of said Hancock and Dublin eight hundred and seventy nine rods to stones; thence south in the line of Hancock and Dublin and Peterborough