

Saturday ~ July 2
10 am ~ 3 pm
on Canal & Island Streets

Fun For Everyone – All Day Long!

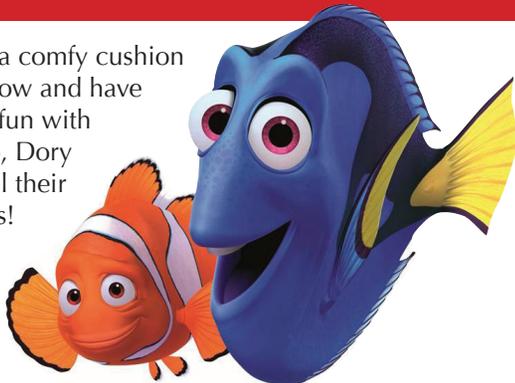

- Craft Fair • Live Music • Food Vendors
- Children's Under-the-Sea-Themed Crafts
- Children's Games • Chess • Moon Bouncer
 - Cake Walk and Silent Cake Auction
- Face Painting • Lobster & Clambake Raffle Tickets (benefitting HCC) available at Headquarters Tent • Water Power Tours of the Village, 11:00 am (meet at HHI tent)
- Mill Buildings Tours, 1:00 pm (meet at HHI tent)
- Firemen's BBQ tickets available at firetruck. Firemen's BBQ held Saturday, July 30.

3rd Annual Children's Parade ~ 1 pm

*Bring your bicycle, scooter or stroller and decorate it at the Children's Games and Crafts tables.
At 1 pm come and join the parade!*

Now Showing
"Finding Nemo" 6:30 pm
at St. Denis Hall

Bring a comfy cushion or pillow and have some fun with Nemo, Dory and all their friends!

We would like to thank all those who contributed their time and talent to make Harrisville Old Home Days 2016 a weekend to remember!

OHD 2016 Committee

*Cathy Buffum
Maria Coviello
Jenny Foreman
Janet Grant
Ranae O'Neil
Pam Thayer*

Harrisville
Old Home Days

Friday – Sunday
July 1-3, 2016

This wonderful illustration was done by Judy Johnson; it is borrowed from the 2001 OHD Schedule of Events

Schedule of Events

Friday Eve ~ July 1 on Canal Street

Annual Library Book Sale 5 – 7:00 pm

Hundreds of books from which to choose. Come have a look. There's something for everyone!

Farmers Market 5:30 – 7:00 pm

At the red barn.

Ice Cream Social 6 – 7:30 pm

Create your own sundae, $4.00 each. Sponsored by the Moschan family and The Community Church. Rain venue, Fellowship Hall inside the church

Nelson Town Band 6:45 – 8:00 pm

A perennial favorite at Old Home Days. Come enjoy the rousing tunes of this well-loved band. Remember to BYO Chair!
Rain venue, right inside the church.

Saturday, Musical Entertainment 10 am ~ 2:45 pm

10-10:45~Sharrock Family

Harrisville's own Sharrock Family—Jim, Cheryl and Miriam—will bring you a collection of music from light classical, classic American pop, a few originals and a surprise or two . . . Something for everyone!

11-11:45~Folksoul Ensemble

Returning to Old Home Days is the duet of Leslie Vogel and Fred Simmons. With Fred on guitar and trombone and Leslie playing accordion and keyboard; they will be singing traditional to original American Roots songs that will get your feet tapping. Come and check them out. Their web site is at www.folksoul.com

12-12:45~The Volunteers

Some members of The Volunteers Band will play many styles of music, such as folk, rock, bluegrass, reggae, and country, as well as originals.

1-1:45~Nate Watkins

Nate grew up in Harrisville and started his music education at age 10. His first big performance was at the Zucchini Festival, in Harrisville, where he sang the "Zucchini Song" written by David and Susan Lord. He continued developing his musical skills during his high school years in Keene. Nate soon moved on to major in music at Skidmore College where he sang in an a cappella group, a rock band and an acoustic duo. After college he started building his career as a solo acoustic musician in various venues in upstate New York. Now living in the Boston area since 1993, Nate has been playing his crowd-friendly and energetic acoustic show all over the city

2-2:45~Jakob Stone

Jakob Stone, a student at Plymouth State University, will be singing Broadway and Jazz Classics including songs like Some Enchanted Evening, Beyond the Sea, Come fly with me, and more.

Sunday Morn ~ July 3 at Wells Memorial School

Harrisville Girl Scout Troop 10078

Serving Breakfast~ 8 – 11:00 am

Come support and enjoy a delicious breakfast served by Harrisville's Girl Scout Troop. Breakfast sandwiches and scrambled eggs, breakfast meat, fruit and yogurt with granola, and other yummy items will be available to start your day.

Sheep Dog Demonstrations at WMS

9:00 am and 10:00 am –

David Kennard, of Wellscroft Farm, and his dogs will be demonstrating the art of herding sheep, on the field at Wells Memorial School. You're in for a real treat watching these dogs doing what they love to do. If you haven't seen this demonstration before, it's well worth the the short trip to WMS!

Sunday Eve ~ July 3 on Sunset Beach

The Volunteers Band at 7:00 pm

followed by town fireworks at dusk

Fireworks rain date, Sunday, July 10)

The Volunteers Band has been playing in the Monadnock area for over 15 years. The band enjoys playing many styles of music, such as folk, rock, bluegrass, reggae, and country, as well as originals.